THANK YOU FOR SUPPORTING BARNES OF ROSE HILL!

Always consult your tax advisor as every tax situation is different.

Giving capital assets like stock, may maximize your generosity and minimize taxes, such as capital gains. Also, you can claim a charitable cash donation of up to 60% of adjusted gross income.

IRA owners that are 72 and older must make an annual withdrawal (RMD), which the IRS counts as income. In meeting your RMD, you can utilize a qualified charitable distribution to make a gift of as much as $100,000 directly from your IRA, directly to Barnes of Rose Hill and not be subject to federal income taxes.

Please call or email sarah.ames@borh.org to learn more about how to make a qualified charitable distribution from your IRA, or to discuss other types of planned giving.
